Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Creighton Miller was hired by the Department of Public Safety on September 22, 1965, and in October 1984, he transferred to the Department of Transportation as a Statistician IV; and,

Whereas, In 2003, Creighton transferred back to the Department of Public Safety due to reorganization; and,

Whereas, Under Creighton's leadership, Accident Records has been an integral part of the Department of Transportation and Highway Patrol's effort in the area of highway safety; and,

Whereas, Creighton will be greatly missed by his friends and colleagues, and they will demand frequent visits for updates on the benefits of retirement; and,

Whereas, Creighton will retire on December 23, 2003, after 38 years of dedicated service to the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments of this employee and congratulate him on his retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 23, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with Creighton's family, friends, and co-workers as they wish him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-second Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
